The Belgian Shepherd Dog

1 Breed - 4 Varieties

Groenendael, Laekenois, Malinois, Tervueren

Four musketeers serving mankind

Belgian Shepherds are sheepdogs from Belgium.

Groenendael – long coat black.

Laekenois – rough coat fawn.

Malinois – short coat fawn.

Tervueren – long coat fawn or grey.

Originally developed and used as a shepherd's dog in Belgium, the Belgian Shepherds of today have proven their intelligence, versatility and trainability in many varied activities. Belgian Shepherds shine in sports such as Herding, Agility, Tracking, Obedience and Conformation Shows, but they are not limited to these. They also excel at Lure Coursing, Dock Diving, Trick Dog and other newly developing events, all because of their natural moderate structure and eagerness to please. In more recent times, Belgian Shepherds have become assistance and therapy dogs which underlines their nature, affinity and loyalty to their family members.

Today Belgian Shepherds are sought after not only because they make excellent family companions and competition dogs, but the breed's moderate structure, and a history in Australia of breeders undertaking health clearances prior to breeding, means ongoing excellent health.

Go ahead, choose your favourite coat type and colour, but be warned. You won't want to stop at just one....
